Deadly Hot Wave.

Many prostrations and four deaths, the latter all of young children, accompanied the renewal of Sunday's torrid temperature, aggravated by a high degree of humidity in the early hours of yesterday in New York. At 12:30 the thermometer marked 88 degrees, with every indication of a further rise, but soon after relief came in the form of a cool breeze from the sea, accompanied by a rapid fall in temperature and humidity, which continued steadily until last night, when the air was almost too chilly for the comfort of the thousands who had fled to the seaside resorts to escape the heat of the morning.Pittsburg, Pa., fairly sizzled in the heat yesterday, and was, perhaps, the warmest place in the country. The Weather Bureau, which is on the top of the Farmers' Bank Building, 24 stories up, confessed to 92 degrees during the day, but on the pavements, far below, the heat reached 99 degrees. The county coroner is kept more than busy with bodies, as the hot wave has been fatal to an extreme. Ten deaths from heat have been recorded since Sunday morning.

Cruelty to His Children.

Magistrate Taylor, of South Orange, N. J., announced yesterday that he had found William S. Glover guilty of wilful cruelty to his two children—Muir, aged five years, and Lucille, aged three years, in burning their fingers with matches as a punishment. The middle fingers, which were chosen by Glover for the burning, were so terribly burned that it has taken weeks for the healing process. Glover will be sentenced later.
He was arrested at the instance of the Children's Aid and Protective Society of the Oranges, and appealed to members to stop the prosecution. He made such an impression on the officers that they reversed their own action and ordered the agent to stop the case. Application was made to Magistrate Taylor for permission to withdraw the complaint, but he not only refused to grant the request, but censured the society in unmeasured terms. Magistrate Taylor then heard the case on June 8 and reversed the decision.

Ironworkers Strike.

Sixty men, employed by the Pennsylvania Steel Company, of Steelton, Pa., who were erecting bridges on the Washington extension from Cherry Run to Cumberland, Md., struck yesterday upon instructions from Business Agent Biggs, of Washington, representing the Structural Iron Workers Union, who went to Hagerstown yesterday and called out all the structural iron workers along the railroad, which will tie up all the bridge building. The trouble originated at the home plant at Steelton, where, the strikers say, 27 steel bents for bridges were allowed to be made for the company by unskilled workmen at $1.50 a day, when the labor should have been performed by skilled workmen. About 3,000 men throughout the country are affected.
